

interference concerns to the available radio spectrum with a threat to our Homeland Security. As a member of the ARRL (American Relay League) and a NVOAD (national volunteer organization active in Disaster this matter is of great concern. However our goverment makes monies selling off the radio spectrum.